

FRIDAY, OCTOBER 1. 1742.

Yesterday arriv'd a Mail from France.

Hamburg, Oct. 1.

Owends the latter End of the Month of August the Swedish General Count Lewenhaupt receiv'd an Order from his Court, the Contents of which remain'd a Secret. Soon after he withdrew, and left the Command in Chief to Major-General Bultner. On the First of September Veldt-Marshal General Lacy arriv'd within a League of Helsingfors, and soon after sent a Trumpet to summon the Swedes to surrender. Upon this several Conferences followed, which terminated in the following Capitulation; by which the Great Duchy of Finland is put into the Hands of the Russians, from whom it will not be easily recovered.

I. The whole Swedish Army, with all such Persons as depend thereon, shall with their Arms, Ammunition, Standards, Drums, Kettle-drums, Trumpets, and Baggage, embark on board the Vessels now in the Harbour of Helsingfors, and from thence shall sail into Sweden without Interruption.

II. Such as cannot find a Passage at present, shall be at Liberty to march to Abo, or North about; or if they make it their Choice, shall remain quietly at Helsingfors till they can find a Passage.

III. The Suters and other Attendants on the Swedish Army shall pass, with whatever Provisions or Baggage they have in their Custody, without Molestation.

IV. Such of the Inhabitants of Finland as follow'd the Swedish Army hither, or retired into the Place after the Arrival of the Army, as also the Townsmen, shall have free Liberty either to retire or to remain, and such as make the latter their Choice shall be taken into the Embrace of Russia's Protection.

V. The Swedish Artillery, with the Ammunition and whatever else belongs thereto, shall be delivered up to the Russians.

VI. In like manner the Magazines of Provision and Forage shall be put into their Hands.

VII. Such Provisions however as are on board the Ships in the Harbour shall remain there for the Use of the Troops that are to be transported.

VIII. Such of the Finland Regiments as do not incline to leave their Country, and pass over into Sweden, shall be permitted to remain, and to keep their Arms and Colours; and if they desire to go home to their own Houses, this likewise shall be permitted, on their delivering up their Arms and Colours to General Lacy.

IX. This Capitulation shall take place from the Day of its being sign'd. The Russian Army likewise may pass itself close by the Swedes, but without molesting or disturbing them.

X. Passports shall be granted to the Swedish Army, and to every Ship on board which any Troops shall be embark'd, that in case of their being driven on the Russian Coast, they may be assist'd to prosecute their Voyage.

Done in the Army before Helsingfors.

September 4, 1742.

Hanover, Sept. 28. On the 22d the Privy-Counsellor Hardenberg arriv'd here from Paris, as did his Brother from the Camp before Prague, where he had served as a Volunteer. We have made great Rejoicings here, on account of the Peace concluded between her Hungarian Majesty and the King of Poland; which, we hope, may prove a Prologue to the general Pacification of Germany. We cannot so much as guess in what Service our Troops and those of Hesse, which have lately march'd towards the Rhine, will be employ'd; neither have any of the Officers or Soldiers who compos'd that Corps the least Knowledge of it, having Orders every Evening for the next Morning's March, which is the utmost Bounds of their Intelligence. As they are all choice Troops, and well clothed, and the Cavalry finely mounted, we do not doubt of their affordin' an extraordinary Pleasure to the King our Sovereign and the Duke of Cumberland, when they are reviewed by them.

Frankfort, Sept. 29. According to some private Letters from Prague, we find that the Blockade of that City is still very strict; and that near a third Part of every Detachment of Horse that has attempted to escape, have been either killed or made Prisoners by the Hussars; neither has Marshal Broglie been able to get any considerable Quantity of Provisions. His Imperial Majesty has sent Orders to Marshal Seckendorff to remain in Bavaria, and to act there on the Defensive. His Excellency is likewise provided with Full Powers to treat of Peace, in case her Hungarian Majesty shall grant the like Powers to any of her General Officers. The Marshals Broglie and Belleisle have sign'd a State of the Garison of Prague, Sept. 12, 1742, which was the Day the Siege was rais'd; whereby they certify their Infantry to consist of 17,500 Men, and their Cavalry of 1,500.

Extract from the Paris Almanac.

Paris, Oct. 6. The Duke de Brissac pass'd by this City on the 1st Instant, in his Way from Prague to Versailles. He carried his Majesty an exact Detail of the Siege and of the Manner of their Defence, with a List of the Killed and Wounded, which has not hitherto been published. This Nobleman fall'd out of Prague on the 26th of September, at the Head of 400 Horse and a Detachment of Grenadiers, which serv'd him for his Escort. In his Passage he surpriz'd one of the Enemy's Guards, consisting of 30 Men, whom he carried to Egra; there he pass'd the River Elbe in his Way to Dresden, and from thence came directly hither. He informs us, that the City is still block'd up three or four Leagues round, which however has not hindred Marshal Broglie from fortifying a Castle at some Distance from the Place, in order to favour such Convoys of Provision as are sent him from Saxony or from Egra; that he has still in the Town 24,000 Men, of whom there are 1,500 Horse, exclusive of Officers; that in the Siege he did not lose above 13,000 Men, and that there may be between 7 and 800 Wounded.

The Duke de Brissac reports farther, that the Count de Saxe had forced a Passage into Bohemia with his Army consisting of 16,000 Men, and that he had attack'd the Town of Piana, which despairing of Succours from Prince Charles, and perceiving that the French Army was furnish'd with Artillery, surrender'd, and the Garison consisting of 400 Men, being made Prisoners of War, were conducted to Egra; that it was believ'd that General had rejoind Marshal Maillebois on the 24th, which would oblige the Enemy either to hazard a Battle, or retire. This Account makes us very impatient for an Express.

His Majesty goes no more to Choisy this Year. The Tribunal of the Chamber of the Arsenal is revived, in virtue of a new Commission, at the Head of which is Mr. Chauvin. They opened their Commission last Thursday. Actions 2047.

LONDON.

The Mail which arriv'd Yesterday from France brought no Italian Letters. Those from Spain advise, that a British Man of War had brought into Gibraltar a French Ship, bound from the Caraccas to Cadiz, having on board 24,000 Pieces of Eight in Specie, besides other Goods, valued in the Whole at near 14,000 l. Sterl. On the other hand, a Spanish Cruiser had brought an English Prize into Cadiz. Four Privateers were out on a Cruise from Malaga, one said to have 30 Guns and 200 Men. But it is to be hoped they will find themselves mistaken, if they imagine less Care will be taken of the British Navigation in the Mediterranean by Admiral Matthews, than was by his Predecessor Admiral Haddock, to whose Care and Conduct the Merchants trading to and from Italy are indebted, for the Premium or Assurance on their Ships and Merchandises being reduc'd from 12 and 10 to 6 and 4 per Cent.

Yesterday the Mary, Capt. Coats, arriv'd in the River from Hudson's-Bay, who left Capt. Middleton in Yarmouth Roads, in a Ship fitted out by the Government, with which he sail'd last Year to make Discoveries in the North-West. He winter'd in Hudson's-Bay, and has not met with the desired Success.

On Wednesday last Capt. Haynes, Commander of the Foxhunter Sloop, contract'd with the Commissioners of the Navy for carrying his Majesty's Baggage to Ostend, and we hear he has been so expeditious in shipping the same, that he only waits for his Clearance at the Custom-house, to proceed on his Voyage.

We hear that the Neptune Sloop; of 22 Guns and 100 Men, Thomas Holden, Commander, will sail the latter End of next Week, to cruise on the Coast of France.

On Tuesday last 500 Weight of Tea, and 10 Half-Anchors of Brandy, were brought to the Excise-Office, which were seized by some Officers of that Branch of the Revenue at Eltham in Kent.

On Wednesday last died an Asthma, at his House in Cornhill, Mr. Hinchliffe, an eminent Bookseller.

The same Day Edward Leveratt, Esq; was sworn in Mayor of the ancient Corporation of Saffron-Walden in Essex, for the Year ensuing, in the room of Joseph Collins, Esq.

The same Day died in Charles-street, St. James's-Square, Miss Corbet, one of the Daughters of the late Sir Robert Corbet, Bart. Commissioner of the Customs.

Yesterday the Lords Commissioners of the Treasury appointed — Bare, Esq; to be Tally-Cutter in the Exchequer, in the room of Anthony Brown, Esq; deceased, a Place worth 200 l. per Annum.

The same Day, Charles Eggleston, Esq; and Mr. Alderman Benn, the two new Sheriffs of this City, went (accompanied by the Right Hon. the Lord Mayor, the Recorder, and Court of Aldermen) to the Court of Exchequer, Westminster-hall, where at the Bar they were sworn according to Custom, after which they gave a grand Entertainment to the Lord Mayor, Aldermen, &c.

Philosophica Dissertatio de Gravitare. Per R. Mather, Arm.

To Persons of either Sex Afflicted with any Species of the PALSY, or other NERVOUS DECAYS.

NEVER were NERVOUS DISEASES, PALSIES, and PARALYTICK DISORDERS so frequent as of late they have been, nor have the usual Remedies been found adequate to those pertinacious Distempers: This occasioned a Physician, who employ'd his Thoughts much concerning them, to adapt a Medicine, a Sovereign Elixir, peculiar to, and effectual for, the Palsy, and all other nervous Complaints now reigning, which after he had experienced on vast Numbers of Persons of both Sexes, and always with surprising Success, even so as infallibly to cure by it the Palsy, and all Paralytick Effects and Nervous Disorders, he permitted it to be made publick for a general Good, that so those labouring under these miserable Afflictions, might know where to meet with a safe and most certain Cure, which it accomplishes in so short a Time, and with such Ease and Pleasure (a few Drops of it being a Dose, highly agreeable to the Palate, and comfortig to the Stomach and Bowels) as is almost incredible to relate.

But the taking one Bottle of it only, demonstrates its prodigious Efficacy to every one, and the Patients soon find all Numbness, Deadness, and Shaking, or Resolution of the Nerves, as well as all convulsive, cramp-like, or painful Contractions of them, vanish and return no more; and this, though these Diseases have been of many Years standing, and whether occasioned by long Illness, fast Living, hard Drinking, or any other Cause; for it performs all that can be wish'd for in Nervous Cases, creates an Appetite, expels Wind, rectifies the Digestion, occasions laudable Chyle, attenuates the Blood and Juices, causes a free and regular Circulation of 'em thro' the Capillary Vessels, revives and increases the Spirits, warms, comforts, strengthens, and replenishes the Brain and whole Nervous System, hence the Sinews, Tendons, Ligaments, and all the enfeebled Parts are invigorated, the Limbs restored to their pristine Steadiness and Strength, and the Palsy and all Paralytick Disorders and Nervous Decays suddenly cured by it, to the Admiration of the Patients themselves, and all about them.

This sovereign and incomparable Elixir is permitted to be sold only at Mrs. Holt's, at the Cross-Keys and Star below the Royal Exchange in Cornhill, London, at 3 s. 6 d. a Bottle, with printed Directions at large.

The Great Carminative.

A most famous Tincture for the Wind Cholick,

IN what Part soever lodged; for at once taking, and in five Minute's Time, it perfectly cures the severest Gripings in the Guts, and immediately expels the Wind from the Stomach or Bowels (as it were) to a Miracle.

For all wandering Pains in any Part soever, which are in some Persons the Forerunners of a fixed Rheumatism, in others the Gout (mistaken many times under the Notion of Spasmodick Ailments) this famous Medicine has not its Fellow, having wrought Wonders in these Cases on great Numbers of People, who, before taking it, could neither sit, stand, nor lie at Ease; but were in intolerable Pain Night and Day, and in taking less than half a Bottle, were absolutely freed from their present Pain, and, by a short Continuance of the Course, recovered to perfect Health again.

As for any Belchings or Hiccups, proceeding from Wind, or, in short, in any Case of Wind, it may be depended on as the best, safest, most expeditious, and most sovereign Remedy ever yet known.

It is sold only by Mr. King, Printseller, in the Poultry, near the Royal Exchange, and by Mr. Martin, Hoſier, at the Sign of the Duke of Cumberland in Cranbourn-alley, near Leicester-fields, at 3 s. the Bottle.

By the said Mr. King and Mr. Martin is also sold for 2 s. the Bottle, Retail.

The Princely beautifying LOTION.

Whole INIMITABLE VIRTUES and TRANSCENDENT EXCELLENCIES have gained it so much Reputation, that envious Imitators endeavour, tho' in vain, to counterfeit it.

It beautifies the Face, Neck, and Hands to the utmost Perfection, and is in the greatest Esteem amongst Ladies, &c. of the first Quality. No Words can sufficiently express its Virtues; for it is not of the Nature of Paint, which puts a false and unnatural Gloss on the Skin; but is a Remedy that, by its Use, really gives a Lustre to the most Beautified, by showing the fine Features of the Face, and is so safe, not having the least Grain of Mercury in it, that it may be taken inwardly, and it smelted to, is really good against Vapours.

It infallibly kill Worms in the Face, takes away Freckles, Spots, Wrinkles, Pits, or Marks of the Small-Pox, and affords cures any Defects in the Face, giving a charming youthful Lustre and fine Air to the Features, to Admiration.

As for such Persons as are of a swarthy Complexion, or troubled with any disagreeable Redness, Roughness, Morpew, Heats, or the like, it is not to be parallel'd; for it immediately smoothes, clears, plumps, nourishes, and whitenes the Skin to the last Degree, and makes those Persons who before look'd bagged and old, to look young, beautiful, and fair, and, in short, it far exceeds any thing that was ever yet known of made publick, for clearing and beautifying the Skin.

It will keep good twice Seven Years, well cork'd, in any Part of the World.

Good Allowance is given by the Dozen to sell again.
